RE-ISSUED August 15, 2022

Purpose

In accordance with Section 6-108 of the Home Rule Charter of the City of New Orleans, and Rule 42 of the Rules and Regulations of the City Council, and pursuant to the provisions of Council Motion M-22-158, the Council of the City of New Orleans is soliciting proposals from professional services firms to survey existing City or Juvenile Court administered and funded juvenile intervention services programming, budgetary allocations, and the entities responsible for execution and oversight of said programming; a performance analysis, including a review of best practices and service gaps of juvenile intervention services, as well as recommended strategies for improving outcomes.

Scope of Services

It is anticipated that the consultant will be responsible for the following services to the Council:

- Studying existing juvenile intervention services, programming, budgetary allocations, and execution and oversight of same.
- Analyzing the performance of entities responsible for execution and oversight of programming and budget.
- Providing a review of best practices and identify gaps in juvenile intervention services.
- Recommending strategies for improving juvenile intervention services outcomes.

Qualifications Statement Content

The proposal should include the following components:

1. Professional experience and resumes of partners, principals, and employees in the firm and subcontractors who will be responsible for, and actively involved in, the provision of professional services for the Council, including any relevant experience and expertise of such key personnel.

Selection Process

An evaluation committee composed of Council staff. In cases where proposals are selected for referral, Council staff will contact one or more of the references. The evaluation committee will determine if the responses received are complete and will submit its determination to the City Council. The firm(s) must be selected by Motion of the Council.

Inspector General

The Inspector General shall be notified in writing prior to any meeting of a selection or negotiation committee relating to the procurement of goods or services by the City, including meetings involving third-party transactions. The notice required shall be given to the Inspector General as soon as possible after a meeting has been scheduled but in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the scheduled meeting. The Inspector General may attend all City meetings relating to the procurement of goods or services as provided herein and may post questions and raise concerns consistent with the functions, authority, and powers of the Inspector General. An audio recorder or court stenographer may be utilized to record all selection or negotiation committee meetings attended by the Office of the Inspector General.

Section 2-1120 of the New Orleans City Code, relative to the Office of Inspector General, provides in part as follows:

Professional Services Consultant/Juvenile Intervention Services
New Orleans City Council

[E]very bid, proposal, application, or solicitation for a city contract, and every application for certification of eligibility for a city contract or program shall contain the following statement: "It is agreed that the respondent or applicant will abide by all provisions of City Code § 2-1120, including, but not limited to, City Code § 2-1120(12), which requires the respondent to provide the Office of Inspector General with documents and information as requested. Failure to comply with such requests shall constitute a material breach of the contract. In signing this contract, the respondent agrees that it is subject to the jurisdiction of the Orleans Parish Civil District Court for purposes of challenging a subpoena."

Additional Information

The City of New Orleans is not liable for any costs incurred by the respondent prior to entering into a formal written contract. Any costs incurred in the preparation of the statement of qualifications, interview, or other pre-contract activity are the responsibility of the respondent. All submissions become the property of the City and, as such, are public records.

The City Council reserves the right to accept or reject any and all responses submitted and to cancel the request for proposals, in whole or in part, for any reason, in its sole judgment.

It is anticipated that the respondent will invoice the City Council monthly during the term of the contract.

The contract with the City Council shall contain a provision that regarding any sub-contractor proposed to be retained by the respondent to perform work on the contract with the City Council the respondent must notify the appropriate Council committee within thirty (30) days of retaining said sub-contractor. The Council may require information on ownership interests in the sub-contractor.
