Brief:

Requesting a text amendment to the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance to incorporate certain recommendations and initiatives contained in the "Smart Housing Mix Ordinance Study" to specifically provide recommended Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance text amendment to capture three potential mandatory inclusionary zoning initiatives:

- Establish a Mandatory Inclusionary Zoning Overlay District
Amend the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance to:

1. Institute a mandatory inclusionary zoning requirement via an overlay district in certain areas of the city whereby disparities in affordable and workforce housing options exist, which requires a mandatory affordable and workforce housing component for all properties:
 - a. seeking a zoning change to permit a higher density zoning classification for development, the minimum threshold and applicability of which will be initially recommended by the City Planning Commission (e.g., - 5 units, 10 units, etc.; regardless of if the development is new construction or rehabilitation, and offered for rent or for sale;
 - b. seeking a zoning change to conform to the Master Plan Future Land Use Map amendments adopted by the Council, offered by Cm. Williams, that permit increased residential density;
- Create a New Mandatory Inclusionary Base Zoning District
Amend the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance to institute a new zoning district and correlating map changes for certain areas of the city with disparities in affordable and workforce housing options to require a mandatory affordable and workforce housing component for all applicable developments, the minimum threshold and applicability of which will be initially recommended by the City Planning Commission (e.g., - 5 units, 10 units, etc.; regardless of if the development is new construction or rehabilitation, and offered for rent or for sale;
- Create a Mandatory Inclusionary Zoning Planned Development Classification
Amend the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance to create a new Planned Development type that permits flexibility in zoning regulations for projects incorporating affordable and workforce housing components, which is approved via conditional use, Citywide. The recommendation of the City Planning Commission being "FOR MODIFIED APPROVAL".
