Brief:

Requesting an Amendment to the text of Article 21, Section 21.8.C.18.r of the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance to remove special exceptions from block limitations.

The amendment to Article 21, On-Site Development Standards, Section 21.8.C.18.r is to read as follows (text that is to be deleted is shown as strikethroughs).

~~r. Any property owner may request a special exception from an applicable block limitation, provided that no more than two (2) special exceptions may be in effect within any block at one time. All applications for a special exception shall include a Project Neighborhood Participation Program (Project NPP), conducted in accordance with Section 4.2.D.2, except that the mailed notice to owners of record required by Section 3.3.B.2.b shall be limited to properties located within one hundred (100) feet of the property lines of the subject property. Said request shall be submitted to the Executive Director of the City Planning Commission, who shall review and make recommendations to the ZD 096/24 2 City Council relative to the special exception request. The City Planning staff shall render its recommendations within sixty days of receipt, using the following review standards:~~

- ~~i. Is the requested increase compatible with the surrounding land use and structures?~~
- ~~ii. Are there unique geographic considerations which would mitigate the impact of an additional — non-commercial short term rental within the block?~~
- ~~iii. Are there unique use conditions in the surrounding areas which would be well served by or mitigate — the impact of an additional non-commercial short term rental use within the block?~~
- ~~iv. Will the additional non-commercial short term rental use increase traffic and safety hazards?~~
- ~~v. Will the additional non-commercial short term rental use create parking issues around the block or in — the surrounding areas?~~
- ~~vi. Will the additional non-commercial short term rental use impair the health, safety and welfare of the — neighboring properties?~~

~~The council shall have sixty (60) days from the receipt of the recommendation to approve, deny, or modify the special exception request by motion. The granting of a special exception shall not entitle the applicant to a short-term rental permit unless the applicant otherwise complies with the permitting requirements set forth in the Code. A special exception granted pursuant to the subsection shall lapse in the event the holder of the permit transfers the property subject to the special exception or if the owner's permit is revoked. In the event the Council denies a request for a special exception within a particular block, the applicant may not reapply for a special exception for a period of two years.~~
