Brief:

A RESOLUTION to unequivocally demonstrate the New Orleans City Council's grave concern with respect to federal funding and staffing cuts to ongoing programs and grant allocations to state and local departments as well as service providers here in New Orleans and throughout the state of Louisiana. Such cut backs on government spending is being keenly felt in both urban and rural communities alike, as state and local governments, and other facilities and nonprofits, rely on taxpayer dollars to administer services that affect the everyday lives of people and their communities. Specifically, this resolution focuses on cutbacks directly impacting programs that help our schools and food banks buy food from local farmers, ranchers, and other agricultural producers as well as those that jeopardize the work of community groups and local/state departments that run rape crisis centers and programs aimed at preventing and responding to sexual violence and assault.
